

Volunteer Opportunity: Join Our Back-to-School Shopping Blitz

The Family Center in San Rafael and our supportive housing programs for families provide critical services to help vulnerable families transitioning out of homelessness. Our programs focus strongly on rebuilding wellbeing and resilience for the whole family, allowing kids to thrive as they create their future.

We are looking for energetic adults for a shopping blitz starting at 7 a.m. on Saturday, Aug. 3, at the Target store in San Rafael. The Salvation Army will sponsor purchase of all back-to-school clothing for kids in the Homeward Bound community and each volunteer will shop for five of them.

Homeward Bound will provide detailed clothing requests for each child. We will be walking the aisles to fill our carts with the sizes and colors requested to fill each child's back-to-school needs. Join us for guilt-free shopping!

As an appreciation of your support, you will be able to shop tax-free on Aug. 3 at Target for yourself when you complete your list! We also offer you a free coffee from their convenient in-store Starbucks.

To learn more, please contact Community Engagement Coordinator Andrea Rey at arey@hbofm.org or 415-382-3363, ext. 212.

Volunteers will meet at 7 a.m. in the parking lot of Target, 125 Shoreline Parkway in San Rafael (close to Home Depot).
